

Juniata County, PA

It's 43 miles from top to bottom (or bottom to top) and no matter where you start, you'll be driving on one of the prettiest country roads in the state. From wildlife to horseback riders, Amish buggies to family pets, you can expect just about anything to pop up on these country roads. So please slow down. Take it easy and make the time to explore a few of the destinations on this tour. Or better yet, enjoy the beautiful valley scenery.

1 West Market Street, Lewistown, PA 17044
717-248-6713, info@juniatarivervalley.org
www.juniatarivervalley.org

Richfield & south

- County Line Restaurant
- The Sugar Shack
- Village Merchants Co-op
80+ vendors in an old factory building.
Turn left onto Walnut Street and head up the hill.
- Guardian Angel Christian Bookstore
- Bison Farm II—bison meat and gifts for sale

McAlisterville & south

- The Crème Stop (open seasonally)
- Sal's Original Italian Pizza
- Bread of Life Restaurant
- Fayette Area Lions Den— indoor recreation and fitness center

Oakland Mills & south

- Dean's Store (hoagies)
- Lost Creek Shoe Shop
- Lost Creek Cycle
- Oakland Mills Fabric Shop—turn left onto Rt. 2007. Much more than just fabric, it's known as an Amish WalMart.
- Olivero's Vineyard & Winery
- Abundant Blessing Thrift Store
- Lost Creek Golf Course
- Lost Creek Remote Control Raceway

Route 322 Exit at Mifflintown

- Subway
- Sheetz
- Clubhouse Grille
- McDonald's
- The Red Zone Sports Bar & Grille
- JP's Restaurant
- Dollar General Store
- Two Sisters' Gift Shop (.58 mile south from exit)

Mifflintown & south

- Jack's Drive-In (open seasonally)
- Juniata Walking Bridge located at the end of Bridge Street
- J&B's Furniture
- Juniata Valley Winery & Wilson House B&B

Walnut & south

- Walnut Cheese Nook & One Way Cafe
- Nothing but beautiful scenery from here to the county line

Businesses highlighted in red are Chamber of Commerce members.